MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday by County Clerk Paton to Mr. Ray E. Pinnell and Miss Amelia Crumbie, both of this county.

TILLET-RANE.

—Miss Elizabeth Tillett, of Jessamine county, and Mr. Calude Crane, of Bourbon, secured a marriage license Wednesday afternoon from County Clerk Paton and were united in marriage at 5 o'clock by Judge Denis Dundon in his private office in the court house. The couple presented a very youthful appearance and were compelled to make affidavit that they were of a legal age before a marriage license could be secured.

LARKIN-TAMME.

Contributed.
—A wedding of more than passing interest to many friends in Bourbon county was solemnized at eight o'clock Tuesday morning in the Catholic church in Danville, the contracting parties being Mr. Fred Tamme, of Danville, and Miss Patricia Larkin, formerly of Maysville. Rev. Father Osmond pronouncing the ceremony. The bride, an attractive girl of charming personality and many accomplished merits, was the embodiment of handsome womanhood in a stylish traveling suit of two-toned brown with a chic hat, gloves and shoes to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Larkin, of Mason county.

The groom is well known here, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tamme, former prominent residents of this county, and is a young man of sterling worth and spotless integrity. He was attended by his nephew, Mr. Frank Helbling, of Ripley, O.

Owing to the recent death of the groom's mother the wedding was of a quiet nature, only close relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony, after which the happy couple left directly over the Queen and Crescent for a trip in the South where they are registered at "The Breakers," Palm Beach.

Beautiful and costly gifts of dainty hand-painted china, cut glass, solid silver and other numerous useful articles were showered in profusion by relatives and friends of this popular couple and attest in a measure the esteem in which they are held.

After their return from the South Mr. and Mrs. Tamme will take up their residence in a charmingly furnished bungalow upon the farm recently purchased by the groom, adjoining his father's fine estate, near Danville.

The burial took place Thursday morning at eleven o'clock in the Paris cemetery. Services at the grave. Pallbearers, Lewis Gray, Murphy Gravett, Marshall Shannon and Lark Watson.

TEBBS.

—Hubbard H. Tebbs died at his home in Cynthiana Friday morning, January 10, from pneumonia. He had been in failing health for some time and had not the strength to withstand the ravages of pneumonia, which developed several weeks ago. The funeral services were held at his residence Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. D. Armistead, of the Christian church. Burial followed at Battle Grove.

Mr. Tebbs was born in Harrison county on December 21, 1851. He was a good citizen. A man of high character and probity, he commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Ammerman, three daughters and one son, Mrs. Kiser Smith, of Paris, Misses Alice and Louella Tebbs, of Cynthiana, and Wesley Tebbs, of Cisco, Texas. Mr. F. J. Tebbs was a brother.

Breaking the Habit.

The new China is desperately in earnest in its efforts to put an end to opium smoking. On Christmas day, 1912, a stringent manifesto was issued by the government, absolutely prohibiting the people from indulging in the habit. This manifesto expressed the desire for the suppression of the evil in order to save the people from a life of degradation, not by "tapering off," but by stopping the habit entirely. At the same time the fear was voiced that, although the government was very much in earnest, the people would endeavor to evade the law.

Indian opium to the value of $60,000,000 was stacked at that time in chests in Shanghai and Hongkong warehouses; stacked there without finding buyers. After the manifesto by the government it was practically impossible to buy or sell opium in the coast provinces or the Yangtze provinces.

But last week an incident occurred that shows very grimly how earnest the new government is in this matter. A woman of Shanghai, who openly persisted in the use of the drug, was taken to a public place, by order of the governor of the province, and in the presence of a large crowd of spectators was shot.

To the occidental mind this will seem more than shocking; but perhaps the oriental government knows best how to handle its own problems. And in the matter of stamping out the opium curse, China has a problem that would cause any nation trouble.

One Million Dollar Auto Show.

If you are, or are not, interested in automobiles, you, of course, will make it a point to visit the coming Cincinnati Automobile Show, which will be held in Music Hall the latter part of February next. That it will be given under the auspices of the Cincinnati Automobile Dealers Association is sufficient guarantee that you will not be disappointed. It will be worth your while, in fact, you are bound to like it so well, that you will repeat your visit many times. The Cincinnati show will be one of the largest in the country; for all the real motor cars of value will be exhibited; as also all the newer ones—the sensational car—the masterpieces and all the latest comers.

Total value of automobiles and trucks to be exhibited will reach $1,000,000.

The decorations will be a revelation; last season will not be a marker to it. All that the hand and brain of man can conceive and that money will buy, will be utilized to bring this about.

Gratitude.

A thankful heart is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all other virtues.—Cicero.

Rules for Committeemen Election.

At the last meeting of the State Democratic Convention, the Democrats of the State, through their representatives, adopted rules requiring the Democrats to meet at their respective voting places on the third Saturday of January, 1913, tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m. and elect precinct committeemen. The sections of the rules above referred to are as follows:

Section 19. Said precinct committeeman shall be elected on the third Saturday in January, 1913, and shall be residents of their respective precincts. The Democrats of this state shall meet at their various voting precincts at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., and proceed to the election of a committeeman to serve until his successor shall be elected by order of a succeeding State Convention. The retiring precinct committeemen shall call their respective precinct mass meetings to order and shall preside until the mass meeting shall elect a chairman. Where there is a vacancy in the office of precinct committeeman, the chairman of the county committee shall designate some qualified Democrat living in the precinct to call said meeting to order and preside until the election of a chairman.

Section 20. On the Monday following such election, such precinct committeemen shall meet at their various county seats in the counties having not more than one legislative district, and in counties having more than one legislative district they shall meet at some convenient place in their legislative districts, to be designated by the respective county or legislative district chairman then in office who shall preside and organize by electing a chairman who may or may not be a member of said committee. The chairman or secretary may be removed at the will of a majority of said committee. In counties containing cities of the first class, these meetings and all other meetings of the precinct committeemen in the legislative district embracing that part of the county outside the city shall be held at the county courthouse, or at some other convenient place designated by the chairman of the legislative committee, of which due notice shall be given.

A BIT OF HISTORY.

Short Review of Various Persons

Who Have Been Clerk of Bourbon

County Court—Only Ten Changes in Century and Quarter.

The Lexington Herald of Monday contained the following mention in brief of various persons who have held the position of clerk of the Bourbon County Court. The Herald says:

"Pearce Paton, clerk of the Bourbon County Court, has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for reelection to that office at the primary election next August.

"Mr. Paton has made a very efficient clerk and has won popularity by his genial and accommodating manner. The County Clerk's office in this county is one in which frequent changes have not been popular.

"It will be of interest to Paris readers to know that from the beginning of the county in 1786 to the present time, a period of 127 years, the county has had only ten clerks.

"The first person to hold that office was John Edwards, who was elected in 1786. He was a man of considerable eminence and on the admission of Kentucky to the Union in 1792, he was the first Senator from Kentucky.

"Mr. Edwards was succeeded in 1792 by Thomas Reeder, who held the office until 1795, when Thomas Arnold was elected. Mr. Arnold was succeeded in 1803 by William Garrard, Jr., who resigned on May 1, 1815, and was succeeded by Thomas Porter Smith. Mr. Smith was the father of the late Dr. Thomas P. Smith, of Paris, and the grandfather of Hon. John S. Smith, formerly County Attorney of Bourbon, afterwards Commonwealth's Attorney of the district composed of Bourbon, Scott, Woodford and Franklin counties, and is now practicing law in Indianapolis.

"Mr. Smith held the office uninterruptedly from 1815 to 1851, a period of thirty-six years. In 1851, Mr. R. J. Brown was elected Clerk and held the office through the period of the Civil War. Mr. Brown was a Republican, and at the close of the war was defeated by the late James M. Hughes, a Mexican War veteran, well known to all the older residents of the county.

Mr. Hughes had opposition several times, but his popularity and the belief of the people that the County Clerk's office was one that should not be experimented with too freely, always enabled him to secure reelection. He was Clerk for twenty years. In August, 1886, William Myall, of Paris, was elected to the office, his opponents for the nomination being W. S. Alexander, James Kerr, John S. Smith, R. K. McCarney and John W. Boulden. Mr. Myall held the office for two terms, from 1886 to 1895, and having formed other business connections, did not ask for a third term.

Ed. D. Paton, popularly known as 'Bully' Paton, who had been Mr. Myall's deputy, succeeded to the office in 1895, having been elected the previous November. Mr. Paton held the office until his death on October 31, 1906, when his son and deputy, Pearce Paton, the present Clerk, was appointed to fill out the unexpired term and was then elected by the people and afterwards re-elected.

"J. Walter Payne, of Paris, has also announced his candidacy for nomination to the office."

Champion Corn Grower.

Lester Bryant, of Bowling Green, aged 15 years, the "Champion Corn Grower of Kentucky," as declared by Commissioner of Agriculture Newman, has not only covered himself with laurels, but profit as well. His acre of corn, grown in the Boys' Corn Growing Club, has brought him a net profit in its sale and premiums of $143.13.

He won the John B. McFerran offer of $50 for the greatest yield in Warren county; the sweepstakes at Lexington of $20; the highest yield per acre at Lexington, $35; the best ten ears Dent corn, $3.40 at Lexington; sale of corn at 50 cents per bushel, less expense, $55. Besides winning all these prizes, young Bryant gets a free trip to Washington and Columbia, S. C.

Where Caraway Seed Abounds.

Caraway seed is extensively grown in Holland. Groningen, in the northeast corner, produces more than any other province, next being north Holland, in which Amsterdam is situated. In these two provinces, more than half the caraway plant acreage is found. In the whole country the number of acres devoted to caraway growing was, in 1911, 20,337.

"Who Eats—Pays!"

No indoor worker can continue to eat meat thrice, or even twice daily, after middle life—and middle life, mark you, begins with the thirty-fifth year—without paying the penalty in an attack of gout, rheumatism, Bright's or an allied disease, a few years later. This "few years" may, in special cases, stretch itself to a score—but, inevitably, "who eats, pays!"—Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

Hadn't Missed It.

Little Virgil, aged five, traveled in California with his parents just prior to the earthquake and felt there was nothing in the state that he hadn't seen. Upon his return home a neighbor said: "Well, Virgil, you just missed the earthquake." To which he replied: "Oh, no! We saw it, but it hadn't gone off yet."

Softening Granite Slabs.

It has been observed that, under certain conditions which have not been explained, granite will warp like wood. A slab set in a wall has been under observation in Switzerland, and a perceptible distortion has made itself apparent.—Harper's Weekly.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, man-drake and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherry bark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "Golden Medical Discovery."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require when recovering from a hard cold, grip, or pneumonia. No matter how strong the constitution the stomach is apt to be "out of kilter" at times; in consequence the blood is disordered, for the stomach is the laboratory for the constant manufacture of blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people experience at this time of the year is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin—you feel "blue."

"More than a week ago I was suffering with an awful cold in my head, throat, breast, and body," writes Mr. JAMES G. KERR, of 710 L Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. "Some called it La Grippe, some pneumonia. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I tried a bottle and it did me so much good that I feel safe in saying it is the greatest and best medicine that I ever took. My health is much better than it was before using your medicine. It does all you claim for it and is satisfactory."

Relic of Interest to Scotsmen.

A razor which belonged to "Bobbie" Burns was sold in London the other day. It had a bone handle bearing silver plates giving its pedigree—"The last razor that Robert Burns ever shaved with." Each successive owner since it was presented by Robert Burns, Jr., to William Dunbar, in 1839, has added a plate indicating the purchase.

Purple Patches.

It's always a pity when a man doesn't get married. He can't help slipping into queer ways with nobody to tell him how silly he is. There is no one whom you so really learn to dislike as a person you have injured.—"The Browns," by J. E. Buchrose.

Sensitive Plant Life.

The craving of plants and trees for water has sometimes led them to terrible extremes. A poplar has been known to burrow beneath a wall, under a road, and down a well—all in search of water, and a pertinacious turnip which got the tip of its root into the crack in a field drain went on and on until it was six feet long in the drain. So sensitive is the tip of the root on the water question that Darwin declared it must have a brain in it.

Tobacco.

The increased demand for all kinds of tobacco throughout the civilized world has resulted in tobacco culture in Mexico.

An excellent quality of tobacco is raised in the territory of Tepic, most of it going to Mexico City, where it is manufactured into cigarettes. The production is estimated at 610 pounds to the acre. It is packed in bales of 152 pounds and averages in price about $10 per 100 pounds.

The tobacco is planted from November to January, and the harvest begins in July. Unless seed is wanted the plant is always topped. As the leaves ripen they are cut and hung on ropes to dry in the sun, then piled under shelter, covered with grass and banana leaves and allowed to sweat, after which they are packed for market. The tobacco averages dark, and is mild or strong, according to whether the veins are removed or not.

In New York the Mexican leaf is considered of such high quality that, it is said, wrappers of the same are used on what are afterwards put upon the market as first class Cuban cigars.

TUESDAY'S SALES.

A total of 178,680 pounds of tobacco were sold at the warehouse of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company Tuesday, the general average of the day being $41.12 per hundred pounds.

The offering was far below the average, the quality being only fair and this fact considered experts attending the sale pronounce it the best since the opening of the warehouse.

The highest average of the day was paid on a crop of tobacco for Plummer & McClure which went to $24.87 per hundred. Other high averages were: Ferguson & Neal, $19.30; Bramel & Ferguson, $17.42; W. H. Whaley, $17.26; Jones & Richie, $22.44; Edward Richie, $19.

THEATRICAL.

"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE." Katherine Tingley, the head of 150,000 members of the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical Society of the World, and who first introduced the open air Greek Theatre in America, was in Portland, Maine, recently during the engagement of "The Servant in the House" in that city. She was asked by the editor of the Portland Evening Express to write her views of this famous play for that paper. We quote in part her review:

"The production of 'The Servant in the House,' which I recently witnessed at the Jefferson Theatre, is a symbolic play, one of rare merit. It should be seen and studied for its suggestions it is replete with moral and spiritual principles for old and young.

It is an exposition of the heart and soul of man, a spiritual drama. From beginning to end it is refreshing, wholesome and uplifting effort. It appeals to the eyes and ears of our ethical senses, and I welcome it as a sign that a moral preparation has already begun through the drama for the benefit of mankind."

Music, comedy and pretty girls are undoubtedly the most attractive features with the vast majority of playgoers, and that accounts for the popularity of Hoey's Musical Comedy Co., which comes to the Paris Grand, for a week's engagement, starting Monday night, January 20. It is said, better musical, farcical comedy has never visited this theatre. This company is under the personal supervision of G. F. Hoey, and of the many attractions he has placed on tour the past few seasons, "Hoey's Musical Comedy Company" is said to be the best of them all.

This show has more lifting melodies, more catchy songs and more clever farces than most presentations of a similar nature.

The opening bill Monday night will be a musical comedy in two parts, entitled, "The Military Girls."

Ladies admitted free Monday night, under the usual conditions. Tickets must be purchased before 6 p. m.

Time to Buy.

If it's a suit you want, now is the time to buy it at a great reduction at Mitchell & Blakemore's.

should have rich, red blood and sturdy, healthy bodies to withstand cold rains, changing seasons and winter storms.

If your child is weary when rising—lacks energy and ambition—has no appetite or possibly sallow skin or a pinched face—it is for want of vital body-nourishment; this growing period demands special, concentrated, easily digested food for body-development—mental strain—physical changes.

Scott's Emulsion is the greatest body-builder known—it is nature's wholesome strength-maker—without alcohol or stimulant—makes rosy cheeks, active blood, sturdy frames and sound bodies.

Not an Effective Branch.
The learned counsel was endeavoring to impress the court with the fact that his client had always been anxious to settle. "My lord," he said, impressively, "only eighteen months ago we held out the olive branch." "Yes," responded the witty judge, "but there were no olives on it."

ADE IN PHILANTHROPIC MOOD

George Ade was talking about his last visit to London.

"I like to knock about London alone," he said, "studying the places of historical interest; and at this kindly Christmas season I remember with particular pleasure a good deed that I performed at one of London's historic landmarks for a Chicago woman.

"It was a rainy fall day and I sat over a beefsteak pudding and a mug of bitter at the Cheshire Cheese on Fleet street.

"The Chicago woman entered, Boswell's 'Johnson' in her hand. The Cheshire Cheese was, you know, Johnson's favorite tavern, and the woman had been told that the great man's autograph could still be seen, pencilled on one of the walls.

"The waiters told her they knew of no such autograph, but the woman, with dauntless Chicago spirit, began a long, long search, upstairs and down.

"While she was upstairs a warm glow of benevolence suddenly rose up in my breast, and, taking a pencil from my pocket, I wrote with quaint eighteenth century flourishes on the wall behind me.

"'Sam: Johnson.'

"The woman on her return from upstairs spied the autograph and was overjoyed. Is it not amazing how much happiness we can give to others by these little acts of kindness?"

ROCKEFELLER A LITTLE SHY

The audience which heard the Rev. W. W. Bustard, John D. Rockefeller's Cleveland pastor, address the Christian Endeavor convention was amused by a story on the richest man.

"While riding in an auto with Mr. Rockefeller recently, some miles from Cleveland," said the Rev. Dr. Bustard, "we were about to pass a little barefoot girl plodding along through the dust, when Mr. Rockefeller ordered the chauffeur to halt the car. Then he invited her to step up on the running board and asked her where she would like to have the car stopped.

"The little girl said she wanted to get off at the second crossroads, and asked:

"'How far are you going?'

"'Oh, we're going to heaven,' Mr. Rockefeller answered.

"The little girl was surprised, as many people are when he says that. Then he asked:

"'Don't you think we'll get there?'

"'No,' said the little girl.

"'And why not?' persisted Mr. Rockefeller.

"'I don't think you have enough gasoline,' she said."—Cleveland Press.

Rose-Tinted Mountains.

The rosy light that tinges so beautifully the summits of lofty, snow-clad mountains before sunrise and after sunset is due to the fact that the yellow and red rays of light possess more penetrative power than the blue. The first-mentioned rays make their way through stretches of the atmosphere which entirely arrest and turn back the blue, and they do this the more especially if the air is laden at the time with extraneous particles that augment their opacity.

When the sun is below the horizon the red and yellow rays struggle on through the air as far as the snowy heights, dropping their associates by the way, and thus paint their fleecy surfaces with red and yellow tinted light. This roseate afterglow is very beautifully seen on the Jungfrau. The broad-based cone is suddenly covered in the deepening twilight with the crimson hue of the rose, and this gradually fades until the whole has vanished into darkness.—Harper's Weekly.

Too Tender With It.

A physician tells a story of a philanthropic doctor in a Pennsylvania coal mining town who presented each household with a nice new thermometer and told the people the necessity of maintaining a proper temperature. When making his rounds one day he observed his thermometer hanging in the room. He inquired of the woman of the house if she had remembered his instructions.

"Indeed, sir, I do," was the response.

"I hang the thing right up there and I watch it carefully to see it does not get too high."

"Why, sir," answered the woman, "with the air of one faithful to a trust, 'when it gets too high I take it down and put it outside until it cools off.'"

He'll Probably Give It Up.

Will Prof. Walter Dill Scott or some other eminent psychologist explain why a strong-minded, able-bodied citizen will lie awake in a state of semi-freezing for hours, enduring the slow torture, rather than get up in the full strength of the cold for two minutes while getting another blanket?

Sins of the Mothers.

Discovery that the hobbie skirt was in vogue just 5,000 years ago, prompts one to be belief that the sins of the mothers shall be visited upon the children of the nine hundred and ninety-ninth generation.—Amarillo News.

PROVIDING FOR THE FUTURE

Station in Maine Has Arranged to Turn Out Half a Billion Lobsters This Year.

Half a billion lobsters will be the number hatched at the government station at Boothbay Harbor, Maine, for the present year. It is a huge figure, bigger than most people can realize. It will also mark a record for the number of shellfish brought to life at the government place.

At the present time there are at the Boothbay hatchery 13,529 seed lobsters from which eggs will be secured.

The season for collecting the seeders extends into the spring of the year, so that it is safe to say that fully two-thirds as many lobsters as have already been collected will be added to the number on hand. The average number of eggs secured from the mother lobster is 20,000. The percentage of fertility of these as they are hatched at the government station is so high that it is safe to say that practically all of them will be hatched.

Reckoning on this basis, the number of seeders now at the hatchery will produce 270,000,000 lobsters. The number yet to be collected will very nearly total up to 500,000,000.

AT THE AGE OF REAL WORTH

Youth of Eighty Years of Age Hopes to Demonstrate His Value Before the World.

Here is a young fellow who is the real thing. Andrew D. White, founder of Cornell university, for several years representative of the nation at St. Petersburg and Berlin, and delegate to the first Hague peace congress, recently reached the age of discretion and celebrated his eightieth birthday. So now he expects to be able to do some real work. He has taken up the study of criminology and hopes, he says, within the next few years to make some contributions worth-while on the subject.

That is the sort of spirit of youth to make a man envious. But why not? At eighty a person is just beginning to accumulate a bit of wisdom and to get rid of the half-baked ideas of his boyhood. He is reaching a point where he sees through the shams of success that really is failure and failure that really is success. With such a good foundation to build on, why shouldn't he start in to do something of real value?

Blessed are the young in heart.—Kansas City Star.

Who Invented Paper?

All the world knows that the Arabs transmitted from India to Europe, through Arabia, the figures with which we do our sums, but it is not generally known that we also have them to thank for paper. At various times the scholars of different countries have tried definitely to determine the real discoverer of paper in the eleventh century. It is to paper that we owe the renaissance of letters. From time immemorial something answering modern paper was used in China, where it was manufactured from silk. About the middle of the seventh century of our era there seems to have been established in Arabia a manufactory of paper, and fifty years later the way was discovered to make it from cotton instead of from silk, silk being a rare commodity outside of China at the time, and cotton relatively plentiful. In the reign of Henry II. of France a Greek scholar was sent to Paris to arrange systematically a catalogue of antique manuscripts in the royal library, and a notation in his hand speaks of what was then known as "paper" as originating in Damascus. The later invention of making paper from flax, linen, hemp has been attributed equally to Italy and Germany, but there is evidence that it existed prior to the fourteenth century.—Harper's Weekly.

Her Sculpture.

A French woman who is wealthy, and noted as a generous entertainer of artistic folk, has herself some ambition to shine as an amateur sculptor. A Paris paper has told how this clever woman managed to have a piece of work accepted by an art jury. One day she invited a master sculptor to dinner. After the dessert she said carelessly: "Come and see my little figure; it does not quite come up to my idea."

They passed into the atelier, where the sculptor gave a few reparatory touches to the figure.

Some days later she invited another sculptor to dinner. Again the atelier was visited. "Not bad, not at all bad," said this artist, and generously gave the figure a few useful touches. After several sittings of this kind the good lady was not ashamed proudly to acknowledge the complete work as her own.

Queen Elizabeth Opened It.

In connection with Granville Barker's production of "Twelfth Night," it is interesting to recall that we have still standing in London one of the halls in which the play was performed during Shakespeare's lifetime. In the hall of the Middle Temple, opened by Queen Elizabeth in person in 1576, "Twelfth Night" was acted at Christmas, 1601, and there is a strong probability that Shakespeare himself played a part in that performance. In the early days the Inns of court were patrons of the drama, and the hall of Gray's Inn can also claim to have witnessed a contemporary Shakespeare production, "A Comedy of Errors" having been given there in 1594.—London Chronicle.

CANADIAN MONEY A MENACE

New $10 Goldpiece and New Penny Look Much Alike, According to Banker.

Similarity in appearance of the new Canadian $10 gold piece and the Canadian penny and the consequent danger of confusion of the two caused J. W. Spangler, vice-president of the Seattle National bank, to issue specific directions to the men at the windows to look out for the penny.

The coins are nearly alike in appearance, excepting that the penny is a trifle smaller than the gold piece. The obverse and reverse sides of both coins are similar, excepting that the lettering is respectively "ten dollars" and "one cent."

The penny is of unusually light copper color, the bust of King George being shown in relief on both sides, and the gold coin is the first ever turned out by a Canadian mint, paper currency having been the circulating medium above the value of 50 cents.

Business men have been warned of an attempted fraud on the part of men in Canada who have triple plated the new Canadian penny with gold and have floated the coins in this country as $10 gold pieces, relying on the hurry of business to successfully conceal the tell-tale lettering, and it is stated that such coins have been passed in the Pacific Northwest.

WANTED TO KNOW THE PRICE

Monte Carlo Visitor Had Learned Caution From the Size of His Bill at the Hotel.

Judge William H. Moore, at a horse show supper in Gotham's newest hotel, discussed hotel prices.

"They are worse at Monte Carlo, perhaps," he said, "than anywhere else in the world. The German tourist is sneered at in Monte Carlo because when he enters a barber shop for a shave he always asks what the charge is to be before he sits down in the chair.

"But what is a man to do in a barber shop where it is so uncommon thing to be charged two or three dollars for the simplest operation?

"And it's the same thing in the hotels. I know a man who took a suite at a Monte Carlo hotel without asking the price of anything—and in the restaurants of such hotels it's a common thing to find no prices even on the menus.

"Well, when this man came to pay his bill it was enormous. But he paid it. Then he said:

"'Have you any 25-centime stamps?'

"'Yes, monsieur,' said the clerk.

"'How many do you wish?'

"'My friend smiled blandly.

"'Tell me first, please,' he said, 'what you charge for them here.'"

Balkan Ballads.

In the Balkan countries the ballad makers have certainly been at least as important as the makers of laws. Serbia's national ballads, commemorating the glories of the Serbian Emperor: Dushan, the fatal battle of Kosovo and the legendary exploits of the hero Marko Kraljevic and his horse Sharatz, are of Homeric proportions, and, sung to the accompaniment of a guitar with cords of horse-hair tails, have kept national feeling warm for centuries. In recent years the Serbian government published a popular edition. In Macedonia, Sir Charles Elliot heard a schoolboy recite a Bulgarian poem which took an hour and a quarter, with a simple but significant plot. The Pasha of Sofia summons a Bulgarian hero who is his friend and tells him he has orders to execute him. The Bulgarian asks why; the Pasha says he does not know, but he must do it; and he does.

Looking for Owner of Fingers.

A farmer near Kansas City, Mo., is looking for the owner of a couple of fingers he has in his possession. He went to market with a load of potatoes and started to sleep in his wagon during the night before market opened. He was disturbed by the moving of the canvas over the load and, waking, saw a hand slip beneath the canvas and abstract a couple of the tubers. The operation was repeated so many times that he could foresee nothing but the disappearance of the entire load unless he took summary action. Raising a sharp hatchet he had with him, the farmer smote the hand the next time it appeared and the next morning found two guilty fingers in the wagon. The remainder of his potatoes were not molested.

Twenty-Cent Shoes at Panama.

The rope-soled slippers, with cloth uppers, known as Spanish alpargatas, and worn by practically all the European and colored laborers in the canal zone, are imported all the way from Spain in such quantities that they can be retailed at the low price of 20 cents a pair. The European laborer wears them 12 months in the year on the isthmus, and over 1,000,000 pairs are sold annually by the commissary. Alpargatas are durable, and have been adopted by isthmian bathers as the most convenient form of beach shoe.

To Give Women a Broader Outlook.

It is not expected that women will make politics cleaner. But the broader outlook upon life that politics brings to women will make them worthier friends, wives, sisters, mothers and companions for the men and children of this state. That incidentally will react upon politics, and the participation of better men and women in politics will cleanse it.—Emporia Gazette.

That Occasional Chord.

There are chords in the human heart, strange, varying things, which are only struck by accident; which will remain mute and senseless to appeals the most passionate and earnest, and respond at last to the slightest casual touch. In the most insensible or childish minds there is some train of reflection which art can seldom lead, or skill assist, but which will reveal itself, as great truths have done, by chance, and when the discoverer has the plainest and simplest end in view.—Charles Dickens.

Some Encouragement.

"That girl has rejected me three times," confided the disconsolate youth. "Well," replied Miss Cayenne, "you should feel encouraged. A girl who will listen to three proposals from the same man must think something of him."

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.
